Parties

Mrs. A. M. Loomis's party on Thursday was one of the most interesting parties given this winter. It was the first of a number of original parties Mrs. Loomis has in mind. It was quite like a bit of the old world transplanted to the border of Eden Park by some magician's hand.

The affair was a "Dutch luncheon." The charming hostess recently visited the old country and collected an assortment of Dutch treasures—her table was laid with blue and white linen doilies and centerpieces, with a floral piece of five crystal cornucopias, filled with blue Dutch hyscynthins and ferns. Around this were arranged wooden shoes filled with almonds and candies. Unique place cards of Dutch boys and girls assigned each guest their place. Food from Europe was cooked and served in "Dutch" fashion.

Among those who enjoyed a glimpse of this old world atmosphere were: Mesdames A. P. Coles, J. A. Happer, Waters Davis, W. G. Dunn, A. H. Goldstein, W. D. Howe, M. Dean Stover, W. B. Feldman, W. Cooley, J. C. Lockland, C. M. Newman, W. B. Latta. Bridge concluded the afternoon with Mrs. Newman and Mrs. Davis securing prizes of exquisite handkerchiefs.

Mrs. G. W. Dennis beautifully entertained with "500" on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. H. Holloway. The affair was in honor of Mrs. A. H. Bell, who is leaving for Europe. Mrs. Holloway and Mrs. A. H. Bell received the guests and ushered them into the card rooms. Many high scores were made during the afternoon. A Japanese sewing basket was given to Mrs. Bryant for holding the highest score and a linen towel to Mrs. A. Pillsbury for the second.

A delicious course of ice cream and cake was served by the hostess assisted by Miss Effie Warren and Mrs. Holloway.

Those present were: Mesdames Bryant, J. E. Walker, H. L. Graham, J. Darling, A. Pillsbury, S. L. Cross, F. K. Smith, H. H. Platt, J. Schuller, Williamson, M. J. Murry, Joe Lee Esslinger, W. A. Doellittle, Lowry, H. A. Bell, L. L. Daniels, H. H. Graham, A. H. Key, W. H. Forbes, J. C. Forbes, L. Stewart, W. H. Forbes, C. L. Steenberger, H. H. Holloway, G. W. Dennis, Miss Effie Warren.

On Thursday Mrs. J. J. Ormsbee collected a few of her friends for a napkin hemming contest at her charming home at the smaller, in honor of her sister, Miss Katharine, who is leaving for Europe. Prizes were given for best and quickest work. Mrs. Ormsbee, first prize, and Miss White, second prize. Refreshments of Bombay place and individual cakes ornamented with roses and coffee were served. Pink color motif was used, and those enjoying Mrs. Ormsbee's hospitality were: Mesdames P. H. Dickinson, Dickinson, Hamilton, A. Foster, O'Rear, Hammel, J. S. Capron, Barlow, E. Brooks Jones, H. P. Exeter, C. H. Robert, Waterfield, W. Spaulding, E. M. Bray, Edwards, J. B. Watson, L. H. Tucker, Henry Easter.

School Notes

The executive board of the four Parent-Teachers' associations of El Paso, Mesas, Sunbelt, and Highland Park schools, held a business meeting Wednesday afternoon, at which time extensive preparations were made for an entertainment to be given by the associations to take place Saturday evening, February 10, celebrating the 15th anniversary of the National Congress of Mothers. The program which will be of music and addresses, is in the nature of a social and business affair. It is in a few days. It is hoped that there will be a good attendance, especially among the mothers in El Paso, who are interested in child welfare.

The school children of the city are showing a great deal of interest in the essay contest on American history, for which the Daughters of the American Revolution are to give a gold medal on February 23. The committee in charge has already received a large number of essays.

Walter Clayton has returned to the San Jacinto school after several days' illness.

Come to the matinee or early at night if you wish a real management advice.

There will be a complete change at the Crystal today. Both theaters run continuously from 2:30 to 11 p. m.

EL PASO TELLS HER TROUBLES.
To the "Want" Columns of The Herald. When there's an unexpected vacancy in the office or factory force, it's a Herald Want Ad that gives notice.

When there's something valuable lost or a tenant leaves, a call to Bell 116, Aunt 1115, tells the news.

El Paso has learned that Herald "Want" Ads are the best resort in an emergency.
